

Torre di Civita

Ravello, Amalfi Coast

Casa Dolce Casa

A Historical Gem

Nestled atop a mountain, 300 meters / 1,000 feet above sea level, Torre di Civita offers breathtaking 360-degree views of both land and sea. This ancient monastery, originally built between the 10th and 11th centuries as a Saracen defence tower, later transformed into a serene monastery in the 14th century.

A Legacy of Love and Transformation

Subsequently owned by a Neapolitan prince, the villa was gifted by a loving mother to her daughter as a wedding present. The newlyweds began the transformation of the property and its grounds, laying the foundation for its future grandeur.

The most significant renovations were undertaken by Marajen Chinigo, who discovered the villa while sailing the coast with her soon-to-be husband, Michael. Enchanted by its beauty, the couple purchased the property in 1952 and meticulously restored the villa and its gardens. Since then, it has remained a privately held treasure, cherished by its owners.

A Timeless Retreat above the Amalfi Coast

Situated at the base of Ravello, settled on a beautiful promontory, Torre di Civita offers an unparalleled panorama of the Gulf of Salerno, where the sky meets the shimmering Mediterranean in an endless embrace. This exclusive estate spans 2.4 hectares / 5 acres of citrus orchards, centuries-old olive groves, and flourishing vegetable gardens, creating an oasis of tranquility steeped in history and natural beauty.

From its nine panoramic terraces, breathtaking 360-degree views unfold—rolling mountains cascading toward the sea, and the timeless charm of Minori, Maiori, Atrani, and Amalfi, and pastel-hued villages cling to the cliffs, in a picture-perfect tableau. Each terrace invites moments of quiet reflection or intimate conversation, bathed in golden sunlight by day and soft candlelight by night.

Where time slows and La Dolce Vita lives

Designed for memorable moments, the villa's alfresco dining spaces evoke the warmth of Italian hospitality, with a traditional wood-fired pizza oven, sizzling BBQs, and expansive family-style tables set beneath fragrant lemon trees and a canopy of twinkling lights. As laughter mingles with the scent of fresh herbs, meals become cherished rituals, shared under a starlit sky.

For pure relaxation, retreat to the villa's serene poolside haven, where the rhythmic whisper of water features sets a soothing tone. Hammocks sway gently in the breeze, plush loungers beckon for leisurely afternoons, and a selection of lawn games invites playful moments. With every breath of sea air and every lingering sunset, Torre di Civita captures the essence of la dolce vita—a place where time slows, and beauty lingers in every detail.

La Villa: A Haven of Tranquillity

With seven uniquely designed rooms—three in the Monastery and four in adjacent buildings—Torre di Civita blends historic charm with contemporary elegance.

Gather in the grand dining room, unwind in the library or Italian salotto, and let notes from the grand piano or tunes from the sound system, fill the air. A fireplace, bar, and games room invite warm, convivial moments, while original artwork and antiques add to the timeless ambiance.

Modern comforts, including air-conditioning, and a fully equipped kitchen, ensure a seamless stay where history and elegance meet.
